All Avid Players Must Play the World Caribbean Challenge and Experience an Ultimate Golfers Dream! It is within your reach this year!

Six players from the IGTA represented the USA at the World Caribbean Finals in the Dominican Republic, December 10 -15. They were treated to a World Class Event with competition from golfers of fourteen other countries. They qualified in the U.S. during the year with two players given exemptions to participate. The entire Event was provided at no charge with a stay at the Gran Dominicus Resort with meals, drinks and ambiance included on this ocean setting.

The Teeth of the Dog course reminds one of Pebble Beach and Giuseppe Calderone brought his "A" game. He took first in this World Championship with 47 stableford points. Fellow USA players also did well, Derek Arzoomanian came in third (38) and David Sellers came in fourth (35). There was also a nine hole shoot-out at the new La Estancia G.C. where Derek came in first and Dennis Rasku came in second. This was the inaugural event and may be the sight of an IGTA special championship this spring. Don Wright, Dave Vanco and Luis Matos(DR) also played.
